THE SNOW SHOE REGION

Third Instalment of Historical Sketch.

RATTLESNAKE DEN

An Interesting Story of Ye Earlier Day—Told in a Thrilling Manner.

COMPILED BY JAMES GILLILAND

There was no further settlement until the spring of 1822, when John Holt, Esq., from Bald Valley, located about a mile equidistant from Betchtol and Askey. He made a judicious selection of land. The situation is beautiful, commanding a pleasant and extensive view of the surrounding country; land smooth and easily cultivated, producing good crops, with a desirable home. He was a useful and highly respected citizen. For many years he filled the office of justice of the peace, and discharged the duties of other offices of the township, to which he was frequently called by the people. He died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Hugby, in the State of Illinois, while on a visit, on the 23d day of November, 1869. His remains were brought home and deposited in Snow-Shoe Cemetery.

His great-grandfather was a son of Sir John Holt, of England, and emigrated to America and settled in the Cumberland Valley before the Revolution. He left home to go on business to Philadelphia, and never was heard of afterwards. It was supposed that he was killed by the Indians. He left one son, Thomas, and two daughters, who, with the Buchanans, were the first settlers at Lewistown, Pennsylvania. Thomas Holt had four [illegible] William, the [illegible] olt, Postmaster-Gen- [illegible] Mr. Buchanan's administration, emigrated to Kentucky; James was killed by the Indians; Thomas went to Ohio; and Colonel John Holt, the father of John Holt, Esq., of Snow Shoe, settled in the Bald Eagle Valley, near Curtin's iron works, in 1782. He was a colonel in the Revolution, and was at the battle of Germantown and in several others. He was fond of hunting, and it is said was the first white man that followed the Indian trail to Snow Shoe to hunt game. It was his custom to spend a few weeks during every fall season hunting. Samuel Askey, Joseph and Charles Lucas, and his son John, when a boy, generally accompanied him. He raised a family of four sons—Thomas, James, John, and Robert—and four daughters: Mary, married to Jacob Barnhart; Elizabeth, to Henry Barnhart; Jane, to Frederick Antis; and Nancy, to James Patterson. Colonel Holt died in the summer of 1831, in the seventy-sixth year of his age.

Mrs. Mary Holt, wife of John Holt, died on the 9th of July, 1767, aged seventy-two years. She was a woman of more than ordinary intelligence, highly esteemed by her neighbors and by all who knew her; a devoted Christian, following the example of her Divine Master, "going about doing good;" in cases of sickness attending upon the humble and the lowly as well as the more favored. Mrs. Holt was the daughter of John Harbison, an Englishman, and one of the first settlers of Milesburg, whose descendants are numerous, including the Bairds, Holts, Swanzys, McKibbinses, and others

John Holt's family consisted of two sons and three daughters. William, his oldest son, was killed at the breaking down of the trestle across Miller's Hollow when in the cars, on his way to a political meeting. He was one of the most enterprising men of the country, a skillful and successful farmer, and also engaged extensively in lumber operations. His death was a great loss to his family, and was much lamented by the community. His brother, J. H. Holt, is also a prominent and useful citizen of Snow Shoe, extensively engaged in the square timber business and in farming. Mrs. Hugby, the only daughter living, resides in the State of Illinois.

Three years more pass away without any addition to the settlers. In 1825 John Mayes, from Madisonburg, in Miles township, settled adjoining the farm of Squire Holt, on land now owned by J. H. Holt, which the latter has greatly improved, and on which he resides. He was a son of Thomas Mayes, an Englishman, who was an early settler of Penn's Valley; he lived and died on his farm, about two miles west of Potter's Mills, in what is called "The Loop." The farm is now owned and occupied by Uriah Slack. John Mayes was a shoemaker by trade, and worked on the bench when shoes were wanted; at other times cleared land and cultivated the soil. He was a peaceable, industrious citizen, and died about 1851, leaving a widow, who has since died. They raised a large family of sons and daughters, some of whom are living in the country; others have emigrated to the west.

About the same time, or soon after, Perry John Lucas, from the Bald Eagle Valley, settled on a Wallace tract, adjoining the "Snow Shoe Camp Survey." His ancestors emigrated, at an early period, from the State of Maryland to Centre county, and their descendants are almost as numerous as the descendants of Jacob. Perry John served his country faithfully in the war of 1812, was on board of Perry's fleet, and had a foot severely injured by a cannon-carriage wheel passing over it. After his discharge from the army and his return home, he was called Perry John, to distinguish him from the many other Johns among his kindred.

Sellers---Thompson.

Surrounded by friends and relatives who completely filled the pretty Lemont Presbyterian church, Miss Helen Boal Thompson became the wife of George Mahlon Sellers, on Wednesday afternoon. The interior of the edifice was simply but tastefully decorated with pine, spruce and laurel, with maiden-hair ferns filling the windows at the sides. Stretched across the pulpit platform was a beautiful sheen of spruce and laurel, eight feet in height, and suspended from the arched roof was a large wedding bell, beneath which the vows were taken making the two, one. In the rear of the church the organist, Mrs. Annie Thompson, an aunt of the bride was seated behind a bank of laurel.

The bridesmaids were: Misses Mable Thompson, Hester Christ, Mary Christ, Mary White, Anne Hamilton, Lyde Mitchell, Mrs. Mary Schaffer, Mrs. Magdalene Thompson. Ushers: Messrs Dr. Schaffer, of Altoona; George B. Thompson, Charles Thompson, Elliot Thompson, Simon E. Miller, Alexander Hart, Jr. Bestman: Harry F. Sellers, brother of the groom. Maid-of-honor: Miss Elizabeth Boal Thompson. Flower girls: Misses Hilda and Alice Thompson.

Procession left the house at 2:30 p. m., and walked to the church a block away, ushers first, then bridesmaids, then flower girls, maid-of-honor, followed by bride on arm of father. John I. Thompson Jr. They divided at the doors of church, bride entering right door, the rest in centre aisle of church and went up to the front in this order and were met at front by groom and best man. Rev. E. K. Harnish performed the ceremony.

Miss Thompson was married in her mother's wedding dress of pale blue silk. Bridesmaids carried bunches of ferns, and were gowned in white with white shoes. Ushers wore duck trousers with serge coats. Party then returned to the home where reception was held on spacious porch until 3:30 when the newly married couple departed by automobile for Bellefonte and left there on the 4:44 train for Joplin, Mo., their future home.

George Mahlon Sellers, the groom, is a graduate of Columbia '04 in Mining Engineering; went to State until 1902, when he left in Junior year to enter Columbia. He has a splendid position in Joplin, Mo., where he is manager of a large zinc mine, and is an exceedingly bright and energetic young man.

Mrs. Sellers is one of the prettiest and most popular young ladies of Centre county, and for several years assisted her father, John I. Thompson, in the business office at State College. Presents were magnificent, numerous and costly, silverware and cut glass predominating.

A Pretty Home Wedding at Stormstown.

On Thursday August 10th, a very pretty wedding took place at the home of James and Ellen Rider at Stormstown, Pa. The bride was Miss Mary E. Rider, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. Rider, while the groom was Mr. Edgar G. Way the popular and esteemed son of Thomas and Mary Way.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Taylor, pastor of the M. E. church, according to the beautiful ceremony of that church. Only the immediate families of the bride and groom were in attendance at the nuptials. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served which was enjoyed by all present.

Both young people are highly regarded for their many good qualities of heart and mind. After a trip to various points of interest, the young people will live in Altoona, and in their new home will have the best wishes of many friends for a long and happy life.

THIRTY-SEVEN RESCUED!

Members of the Fiala-Zeigler Arctic Expedition,

ALL IN GOOD HEALTH

Had Been Severed from All Knowledge of the Outside World Since July, 1903.

THEIR SHIP CRUSHED IN ICE.

Honningsvaag, Norway, August 11.—The Arctic steamer, Terra Nova, which went to the relief of the Fiala-Zeigler polar expedition, has rescued Anthony Fiala and all the others connected with the expedition with the exception of one Norwegian seaman, who died from natural causes.

The ship America, which took out the expedition, was crushed in the ice in the winter of 1903-4 and lost, with a large part of her coal and provisions.

The thirty-seven members of the expedition who returned to safety are all in good health, despite their deprivations and trying experiences and their prolonged imprisonment in the Arctic region, the expedition having been severed from al communication with the outside world since July, 1903

Anthony Fiala of Brooklyn, N. Y., the leader of the expedition, says:

"The rescue was most timely. By my order the America wintered in Neplitz bay, where early in the winter of 1903-4, the ship was crushed in the ice and became a total loss, together with big quantities of coal and provisions.

"Supplies of stores left at Franz Josef land by various relief parties saved us very serious privations.

"Three attempts to reach a high altitude failed. The scientific work, however, as planned, was successfully carried out by William J. Peters of the United States geological survey.

"Our rescue was due to the splendid efforts of William S. Champ (secretary of the late William Ziegler), commanding the relief expedition, who, owing to the terrible weather, failed to reach us last year, and to the untiring zeal of Captain Kjeldsen and his Norwegian officers and crew, who for six weeks persistently forced their way through solid floes of ice and finally reached us.

"An abundance of stores had been left in the Franz Josef archipelago by the expedition commanded by the Duke of Abruzzi, and the Andre relief expedition, so that we did not suffer serious difficulties on that score."

New York, August 11.—A cablegram was received at the office of the Zeigler estate confirming the dispatch from Honningsyaag and stating that three attempts northward on the part of the expedition were made without success. The scientific work, however, was successfully carried out.

A Noble Tribute.

The statue of Francis E. Willard was recently unveiled in the rotunda of the National Capitol.

The sentiment which the statue attests is a fine one. The service it signalizes is a broad one. The pre-eminence in that service which it commemorates was conceded. This significant distinction of that service from the work which has divided opinion concerning other equally able women is noticeable. The statue is not only a tribute to character, ability and to consecration, but it is also a conclusive testimony to the humane and religious field in which the woman worked and to which she gave her unusual powers.

The Harris Family Re-Union.

On Saturday last, Aug. 5th., members of the Harris family residing in Centre and Clinton counties held a family reunion at Huston. Guests were conveyed from the station at Huston, to the hospitable home of Mrs. Sarah Harris Beck. Here were gathered four generations of the family, from Mrs. Wm. P. Harris in her 88th year but well and hearty, to the infant daughter of Glen Myer of Clintondale. Luncheon was served at noon in the grove opposite the house and the fifty-five guests were seated at one long table. The day was pleasantly spent in the woods and all enjoyed the warm hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Beck.

THE FLOOD CITY.

A Centre Countian's Impression of This Thriving City.

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 14, 1905.

Kind Editor:—

According to promise I will give you a few items about the Flood City that may possibly interest some of your readers, at least those who have relatives and friends living here.

Johnstown is a place of over 60,000 population. I say place because the city proper does not contain all of this population. At the time of the great flood the place known abroad as Johnstown consisted of ten separate boroughs all contiguous territory except one and several small villages. After the flood seven of these consolidated and formed the city proper. Other towns soon grew up around the city some of which united with it while others have remained separate corporations. At present there are seven of these and several that are not incorporated. In giving the population as 60,000 these are all included as their territory is contiguous.

A great many Centre county people are located here and all as far as I have been able to learn are doing well. Wages and salaries are perhaps a trifle lower than they are in and about Pittsburg but the difference balenced by the difference in rents. Houses that rent for from $12 to $15 a month would bring from $20 to $25 in the Smoky City.

Johnstown has grown rapidly since the flood. Your correspondent remembers when there were only about a half dozen industries in the place outside of the Cambria Iron Co. or as it is now called the Cambria Steel Co.

This company then made rails for railroads. Now they make structural steel, build steel cars and almost anything else in the steel line.

Through the Penn Traffic Co. which is an adjunct to the company they not only conduct a full set of department stores but even run a cafe, a lodging hotel and a restaurant in one of the large parks.

The Johnstown Switch works is a large plant. Tom L. Johnson, Cleveland's popular mayor and single tax leader was the originator of their works. The Du Ponts of Delaware, known throughout the country as the leading manufactures of gun powder are also interested in this plant. Their leading work is making switch plates for trolley lines, but like the Cambria Steel Co. they are continually adding together products.

The Johnstown Sanitary Milk Dairy Co. is quite an industry. They buy all the milk from the country dairymen and also get more by the car loads from Somerset and other adjacent counties. They sterilize the milk and distribute 10,000 bottles daily. They also churn and make ice cream. Last Fourth of July they sold 1000qt of the frozen liquid. To simply mention the many manufacturing plants that have sprung into existence since the flood would occupy too much space in your paper so I will not refer to any more now.

Automobile touring is becoming a fad here. There are now sixty of the horseless vehicles in the city and it is a common sight to see boys and girls steering a big auto on the crowded streets. When you see four or five little girls from ten to fourteen years spinning along in a large car you wonder why there are not more accidents

Well, as my letter is getting rather long I will close for this time. X

Church Ice Cream Makes Girls Tipsy

An investigation is being conducted by the committee in charge of a country church festival, recently held near Annandale, N. J., at which it is said several young men and women became intoxicated by drinking lemonade and eating ice cream into which someone had poured a quantity of apple whiskey. The guilty persons are said to be young men of the neighbo

Several young women partook of one or more plates of cream, after which they began to act in an unusual manner, and others became very sick.

Four or five young men were affected in a like manner, and it became evident to the staid old farmers that their sons and daughters were under the influence of liquor.

Investigations revealed the fact that a large quantity of applejack whiskey had been poured into the ice cream, while a tub of lemonade had been doctored in a similar way.

The mothers of the girls have demanded that the guilty persons be located and punished, and arrests are expected.

DEATH OF PERRY STEELE

Had Passed the 90th Milestone in Life's Journey.

A REMARKABLE MAN

A Venerable Citizen of This County Passes Away.

FUNERAL HELD ON WEDNESDAY!

The venerable Perry C. Steele, the oldest resident of Centre county, died on Monday evening at 9;20 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henrietta Rhoads at Mill Hall, where he had been spending the past few months. Mr. Steele was a very active man up to within a few days of his death. Five days ago he was taken sick while at work trimming some small trees. It was a hot day and he probably became overheated. He took his bed and gradually grew worse until he quietly and peacefully passed away.

The deceased was a remarkable man in many respects, having passed the time allotted to man by many years, being aged four score years and ten. His full name was Perry Commodore Steele and he was born in Freedom Mifflin county, November 8, 1815. He was the son of Frank and Elizabeth Steele and with his parents came to Bellefonte when he was 12 years of age. Ever since then he has been a resident of the county, either here or at Axe Mann and he saw the county grow and develope. He became a contractor and continued in this business all his life. He built a section of the Bellefonte & Snow Shoe Railroad, also a section of the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad near Howard, the first railroads in this vicinity. In 1853 he furnished the stone for Humes' mill at Axe Mann and in 1864 with Frank Wilson he built the Bellefonte Reservoir. Many buildings about town bear the marks of his handiworks. In 1892 and 1893 he had charge of the turnpike from Axe Mann to Bellefonte and gave good satisfaction. At the outbreak of the civil war he served in the three months service.

Mr. Steele was married to Miss Eliza Pierson of Mifflin county, who died in 1863. The following children survive that union, Mrs. Henrietta Rhoads, of Mill Hall; Perry, of Axe Mann; A. Britian, of Bellefonte; Newton and Samuel, of Tyrone; Theodore, of Allegheny; William of Philipsburg.

He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Jane Twitmire, of Bellefonte, now in her 86th year. He was an enthusiastic member of the Methodist church and was always taking a leading part in the revival services of the church. His mind was bright and clear to the end of his life and he had a retentive memory and recall many interesting events in the early history of of the town and county.

The remains were brought to Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon at 4 44 and taken to the residence of his son, A. B. Steele on Pine street. The funeral was held Wednesday at 2 o'clock from the Methodist church and was largely attended. Rev. J. A. Wood Jr., delivered an eloquent and touching sermon. The interment was made in the Union cemetery.

Off to Atlantic City.

There were twenty-six tickets sold to Atlantic City from Bellefonte by way of the Pennsylvania railroad Thursday. Among those who took advantage of the excursion from this point were Misses Bessie Cooney, Bella Hoover, Eleanor Harris, Eleanor Ardell, Daisy Smith, Bessie Smith, Myrtle Williams, Betty Heinle, Mrs. J. A. Wood and son. Miss Elizabeth Miller, of Pleasant Gap; County Commissioners John G. Bailey, A. V. Miller and Philip H. Meyer· Fred Rees, Chas. Brachbill, Hasle Montgomery.

A Queer Family.

A Reynolds avenue youngster the othe day was watching his mother brush her hair, when he exclamed: "Mamma, why does your hair snap so?" "Because there is so much electricity in it," she replied. The young man hopefully sat looking at her for a few moments very thoughtfully and then he could not refrain himself no longer, and burst out with, "What a queer family we must be! you have electricity in your hair and grandma has gas in her stomach."

GAME LAWS OF 1905.

A Digest that Will Interest Sportsmen and the Public Generally.

Published by request.

Almost every week we are asked about some part of the game laws, showing the forgetfulness of the average sportsman. A summary has been printed in this paper, but it is herewith repeated, this time being strictly correct and direct from the state game commissioners.

Bear, Oct. 1 to March 1.
Brook trout, April 15 to August 1.
Salmon, June 15 to Feb. 15.
Bass, June 15 to Dec. 15.
Pike, June 15 to Feb. 15.

It is unlawful: To shoot or hunt on Sunday, penalty $25; to kill any song or insectivorous birds, or destroy any of the nests or eggs, except for scientific purposes. Permits to collect game mammals, birds, nests and eggs must be obtained from the game commissioners.

It is unlawful: To kill, or entrap or pursue with intent to kill, any elk, deer, fawn, wild turkey, pheasant, grouse, quail, partridge or woodcock for the purpose of selling the same, or to ship any of the above game out of the state; penalty $100 for every elk, deer or fawn so taken, purchased or sold, and $25 for every wild turkey, pheasant, grouse, quail, partridge or woodcock. Unlawful for any one person to kill in any one day more than ten woodcock, or more than five ruffed grouse, (commonly called pheasant,) or more than one wild turkey, or to kill in one season more than one deer. Unlawful to use dogs in hunting for deer, under penalty of $100. Dogs pursuing deer may be killed. Hunting rabbits with ferrets prohibited. Unlawful to shoot buckshot at deer.

Death of Mrs. Arthur Pearson.

Mrs Arthur Pearson, formerly of this place, died in Lock Haven Friday evening. Her husband was at one time manager of Valentines store at this place. The Lock Haven Democrat on Saturday evening gives the following account of Mrs. Pearson's death.

Mrs. Sadie Pearson, wife of Arthur Pearson, died at the Lock Haven hospital Friday evening at 8.30 o'clock, of cancer of the bowels. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Edwin S. Furst, of Cedar Springs. Also by her mother Mrs. Simon Scott and two brothers, Jacob and Lewis Scott of this city. Mrs. Pearson has uncomplainingly borne the suffering of her diseases for a long time, and last Saturday she decided to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—to learn the exact nature of her ailment with the hope of having it checked. The operation was performed on Tuesday but the disease had gained such headway that no hope was entertained for her recovery, and she died at the hour above mentioned. The deceased was well known in this city. Possessed of a cheerful disposition, agreeable to everyone she had a host of friends who feel a regret of sadness which but time will overcome. Her funeral will be held from the residence of her mother, Mrs. Simon Scott, on East Main street on Monday morning at 10.30 o'clock, which will be public to all friends of the deceased and interment, which will be private, will be made in Highland cemetery, Rev. Jesse R. Ziegler and Rev. Lewis Nichols will officiate.

Boycotted by the Girls.

Shaved heads are a bar to Society in Jersey Shore. Dared by one of their number, the young men resolved to have the head shaved for comfort and oddity during the hot weather. The result so displeased the young women friends that when the swains called that night they were met with a rebuff and told that a boycott had been declared by the girls against all prematurely bald heads. Today the boycott is tighter than ever, with the girls showing no sign of yielding. Those debarred are planning some scheme for retaliation.

Many Strange Faces Here.

Bellefonte is not particularly a summer resort, but notwithstanding the fact, there are many strange faces in the town. This is an every summer occurrence, and it is growing socially. The people of Bellefonte are not excelled anywhere. Then our fine scenery and delightful, invigorating atmosphere, are never failing sources of attraction.

THE NEGRO IS DEAD

The Man Who Assaulted Rev. Bernard Schulte and Wife

HE RESISTED ARREST

With a Piece of Lead Pipe He Knocked the Preacher Senseless—Later He Attacked Mrs. Schultze.

BOTH PREACHER AND WIFE MAY DIE.

Balleton, N. Y., August 14.—Rev Bernard Schulte and his wife of New York city, were attacked at Mechanicsville Saturday night and probably fatally injured by a negro who was Sunday shot and killed in Saratoga while resisting arrest.

Mr. Schulte came to Mechanicsville recently to take charge of the Episcopal church during the absence of the rector, Dr. Oliver Shaw Newell, who is in Europe. Early Saturday evening William Curtis, a negro, whose home is in Saratoga, presented himself at the door of the rectory and asked for a drink of water. Mr. Schulte was in the act of turning back to get the water when the negro drew a piece of lead pipe from beneath his coat and felled the clergyman with a terrific blow on the head, following this up with a rain of blows until his victim lay unconscious and apparently dead. Mrs. Schulte, who was upstairs hurried down on hearing her husband fall and was met in the hall by the negro, who instantly struck her down before she could utter an outcry, and continued beating her with his heavy weapon until he had inflicted injuries from which she can hardly recover.

The clergyman and his wife were discovered lying unconscious and covered with blood by neighbors and a search was made for the negro, who had been seen leaving the house.

Policeman James Sullivan discovered Curtis Sunday in an alley in the negro colony in Saratoga, and arrested him. The negro, however, broke away and ran, and after firing one shot in the air to halt him Sullivan fired again, shooting him through the head and killing him instantly.

The condition of Mr. Schulte and his wife was said Sunday night to be precarious.

SIX YEARS IN JAIL.

Charged With Complicity in the Assassination of Governor Goebel.

Knocked about like a rudderless ship on a storm-swept ocean, Caleb Powers, Kentucky's most noted prisoner, has for six years and seven months been in prison for the alleged complicity in the assassination of Governor William Goebel.

Caleb Powers has been tried for the crime charged against him just three times, Twice juries voted to send him for life to the old prison at Frankfort. Twice the court of appeals reversed this verdict. The next jury condemned him to die on the scaffold. Again the court of appeals came to his rescue and set the finding of the lower court aside, and remanded him for new trial.

Then his attorneys awakened to the fact that perhaps there was a Federal question in the case, and a motion was madein the United State district court for the eastern district of Kentucky, to transfer it from the state to the federal court. In an opinion handed down at Maysville, a few days ago, Judge Cochran decided that Powers could not be tried fairly under the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and he assumed jurisdiction of the case.

The attorneys for the state of Kentucky will now go before the supreme court of the United States and endeavor to establish the fact that there is no Federal question involved, but, if they are unsuccessful, Powers will be tried before Judge Cochran next November.

Powers friends have stood by him in his hour of trouble, and, were it not for the assistance they have rendered him, he would have long since been in the penitentiary and forgotten. When he was arrested he did not have a dollar and

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Her English Was Somewhat Twisted.

An exchange tells about a woman that stepped into a Judge's office of a nearby county seat and said to his honor: "Are you judge of the reprobate?" "Well, I am Judge of the probate, if thats what you mean," replied the Judge. "Yes I guess that is it," replied the old woman. "My husband died intestate and left me three little infidels and I want to be appointed their executioner.

Rattler Attacks Children at Play.

Rattlesnakes this season are causing all kinds of excitement up in the Wallis Run section of the county, says the Gazette and Bulletin, and the other day Miss Blanche Southard succeeded in killing one of the reptiles after a desperate battle.

While at play outside the house and at the home of I. H. Southard, on Wallis Run, Caroline Wheeland and Paul Southard encountered a big rattler that was ready for attack, Caroline heard the approach of the rattler down the bank toward the house and saw it making for Paul. She gave a scream, and at the same time pulled the child away from the vicinity of the snake, Paul at this time being uncomfortably close.

Miss Blanche Southard, who was in the house, heard the excitement among the children and at once ran to their rescue. She finally succeeded in killing the snake after it had made several attempts to bite her.

The snake measured four feet in length and had eight rattles.

Mrs. Charles Yoder and daughter, Viola, while picking berries near their home at Wallis Run, got into a den of rattlesnakes. Their dog was badly bitten, but Mrs. Yoder and her daughter made their escape.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co. Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Prediction From Plummer's Home.

In commenting upon certain newspaper reports that have been printed in Democratic papers affecting the Republican candidate for state treasurer, Editor W. H. Schwartz, of the Altoona Tribune, says: "The Tribune wishes to remark that for some months past some small creature, supposed to live in this county, has from time to time been sending out telegrams to certain eastern newspapers interested in the downfall of the Republican party, all of which are pure inventions, and all of which are intended to convey the impression to distant readers that Hon. J. Lee Plummer, Republican nominee for state treasurer, is unpopular in his home county. In previous elections when Mr. Plummer was a candidate for the suffrages of his fellow citizens he always received a very complimentary vote. The Tribune, which is seldom mistaken concerning political results, now wishes to place on record the prediction that Blair county will give Mr. Plummer at the next election the largest majority ever given a candidate in an off year."

Plummer Stronger Every Day.

"The scheming Democrats, who hope to profit at the fall election in the state by the Philadelphia upheaval, are doing their level best to force the Republican nominee for state treasurer, J. Lee Plummer, off the ticket, but Republican State Chairman Andrews says Mr. Plummer will not only stay, but that he will be elected by the usual off-year majority," says the editor of the Chronicle and News, of Allentown. "The Democratic leaders betray their hypocrisy in trying to get Mr. Plummer off the ticket, for if he be as weak a candidate as the alleged reformers declare he is, isn't it logical to conclude that the Democrats would want nothing better than to keep Mr. Plummer on the ticket? As a matter of fact, Mr. Plummer has been strong from the very start, and is gaining in strength daily."

A Browning Letter.

One of Browning's letters is a reply to a young poet who wrote asking Browning's advice about publishing a volume of poems. The reply, in part, is as follows and may serve a useful purpose to young poets of today as well: "It sounds strange and almost sad to me that I should be imagined of authority in this kind, I who for years could not get a line printed except at my own expense, and I began half a century ago or more."

A Straight Backbone.

Regarding proper poise of the body, a straight backbone is the first essential. This lifts the chest sufficiently without straining and flattens the abdomen, giving proper breathing position. Never prepare for a breath; always be ready, standing straight, and the lungs will develop while inhaling and exhaling through the nose.

CLUB MEN ARE ACTIVE

Republicans Preparing For Convention of State League at Easton.

NATIONAL ORATORS EXPECTED

Reports From All Parts of the State Indicate That the Party Is In Fine Shape.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, Aug. 15.

The Republican state organization proposes to give every assistance and encouragement to the young Republicans of Pennsylvania to make the coming convention of the State League of Republican Clubs one of the most successful in the history of the League.

The convention, which will be held in Easton next month, promises to be one of the largest held in recent years, and the local committee of arrangements is planning an exceptionally good program for the entertainment of the delegates and other guests who will visit their city during the convention week.

Clubmen Meet Andrews.

Chairman Wesley R. Andrews, of the Republican State Committee, has had several conferences with officers of the State League, and he is heartily cooperating in their efforts to get the active Republicans of the state to interest themselves in the election of delegates to the convention by their home clubs.

It is pointed out that President Roosevelt has from the outset of his political career looked upon the Republican clubs as a powerful factor in the winning of campaigns, and he has never missed an opportunity to commend the work of the vigorous and progressive young Americans who are the bone and sinew of the Republican League of the Nation.

In his last national campaign the president insisted that the Republican national committee must give every consideration to the young men who were in charge of the organization of Republican clubs throughout the country, under the auspices of the National League, and he has since attributed much of the glory of the victory in that campaign to the Young Republicans who marched behind the club banners on which were inscribed the words "Roosevelt, Protection and Prosperity."

Duty of Young Republicans.

Pennsylvania Republicans in the present state campaign expect the clubmen of the commonwealth to do their full duty, and there is every reason to believe that there will be no disappointment on that score.

It is announced from Easton that the Republican clubs of the entire county of Northampton are preparing to entertain the visitors, and that all will be welcome who come with the delegates and will receive the same courtesies and hospitality as the official representatives of the clubs.

A special committee is at work getting Republicans of national fame to promise to address the great mass meeting which will be held on September 20. There are already assurances of the presence of some of the best-known and most popular Republican orators in the country. All of the candidates on the Republican state ticket have been invited, and many of the most prominent Republicans of the several counties of the state are expected to attend the gathering.

From many private interviews with active Republicans from every section of the state and through the heavy correspondence that is daily received, Chairman Andrews is more than delighted with the reports as to the condition of the Republican party and the sentiment of the voters throughout the state. Though the campaign has not been fairly opened there are evidences of unusual activity among the rank and file of the Republican forces.

The attacks of the Democrats serve to stimulate the Republican workers to renewed activity and are actually beneficial to the Republican organization.

Danger Lies In Apathy.

It is admitted on all sides that the greatest danger to a majority party in what is termed an "off year" campaign lies in the apathy of the average voter. When no great prize, such as the presidency or a governorship, is at stake there is likely to be a feeling of indifference or at least of over-confidence, particularly after the polling of such a tremendous Republican majority as was given to Roosevelt for president in Pennsylvania.

It will devolve upon the Republican managers throughout the state to see to it that every Republican voter is impressed with the importance of casting his ballot in November next so that the Republican lines shall remain intact and that the party shall be in shape to mass its forces in solid phalanx in the congressional and gubernatorial struggle which will take place next year.

LOCOMOTIVE BLEW UP.

Engineer Murphy and Fireman Lucas Fatally Hurt near Bellwood.

By an explosion of the boiler of locomotive No. 2245 near Bellwood about 6 o'clock Thursday morning Engineman Nicholas H. Murphy and Fireman John A. Lucas, both of Altoona, who were on the engine at the time, were fatally injured, and a costly wreck was caused.

When the freight train to which the accident happened, started from Altoona it was hauled by the regular locomotive, No. 1994, but it was slightly wrecked in the Altoona yard and engine No. 2245 was substituted to haul the train to Harrisburg. It was coming east on No. 2 track and another freight train slightly behind it, was on No. 1 track alongside, when near the D I telegraph office just west of Bellwood, there was a terrific explosion. The boiler of No. 2245 was hurled 200 yards and the cars in its rear were promiscuously piled up, the wreck involving cars on train on No. 1 track as well as those on the train back of the burst locomotive. Fourteen cars in all were wrecked.

Engineer Murphy was thrown about thirty-five feet into a field. Fireman Lucas was found wedged between the brake valve and tank and he was frighfully scalded. Both were living when picked up but it was at once seen that their injuries were fatal, John H, Parsons, of Tyrone, a Pittsburg division engineman, was coming home from his run on the unfortunate train, and when the explosion occurred he was on the second car from the locomotive. His escape was verily miraculous. He was thrown down between cars to the "six foot" and sustained slight injuries to his wrist, knee and right side. Conductor J. R, Hallahan, of the train on No. 1 track, received a sprained leg from jumping.

The uninjured men were placed upon train No. 37 to be taken to the Altoona hospital. Fireman Lucas died soon after he was put upon the train. Engineer Murphy lingered at the hospital until 9;05 o'clock when he also died. Both were married men. Mr. Murphy resided at 707 Eighth avenue, and Mr. Lucas at 1807 Eleventh avenue, Altoona

Streams as Sewers.

Objections to emptying sewers into water courses are not limited to the streams that are desired as sources of water supplies. A creek looks to be an economical municipality like a sewer provided by nature. It saves expenses to use it, and if no community further down the stream is trying to drink its water it does not occur to any one for a long time that there is the slightest objections to the plan.

After the streams have been used for drainage purposes for several years it gradually dawns upon the community that something is the matter. The first impression is made through the eye, but his is not a deep and lasting one. After the community has become used to seeing the foul black liquid where there had been one of the beauties of nature it begins to be troubled through its sense of smell, and the impression so made is much more acute. But the only remedy is more sewers, which are expensive, and it is long before the remedy is thoroughly effective.

In most streams there is not a sufficient flow to carry off sewerage. Of course, the question, where it would carry it, if it could carry it at all, would be important, but that is not the question involved here. The sluggish stream deposits much of the filth thrown into it upon its bottom, but very much is smeared along its banks, but when the water is low there is an unusually large amount of this exposed to the air.

Methodist Picnic a Success.

The Methodist picnic drew a large crowd to Hecla Park on Thursday and everyone had a good time. The committee on amusements had provided lots of sport. There were tub races, swimming race, shoe race and many others. In the evening there was a spelling bee held which was very entertaining for the older scholars as well as the younger ones.

At 2:30 o'clock there was an interesting ball game between Lock Haven and Bellefonte the score being 6 to 4 in favor of Bellefonte. The Lock Haven boys were a fine set of fellows. Their nine was made up as follows: Lity c.; Englert s. s., Tyson 2 b., Mayer r. f., Cassett 1 b., Passel cf., Rokenbrod P., Osborne L. F., Brest 3 b.

The Bellefonte nine was as follows: Gordon s. s., McClure L. F., Keeler c., Sholl cf.; Shields 2 b., Strub 1st b., Brown rf. Seibert 3b. P. Farner

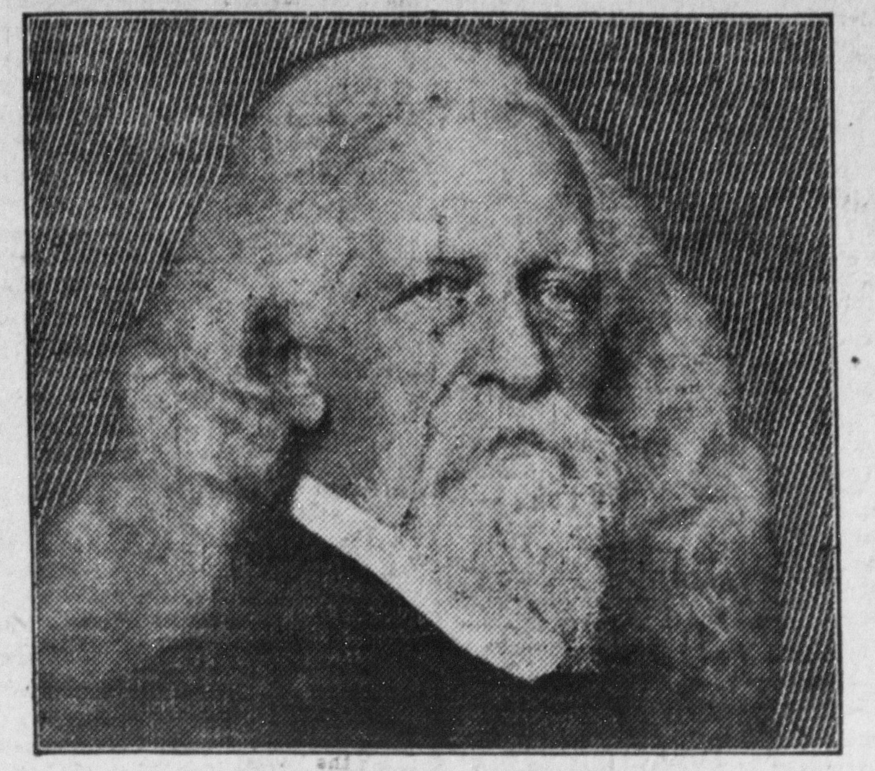
A COMRADE OF GENERAL GRANT

Says: "I Do Not Believe Pe-ru-na Has a Superior."



COL. BENJ. F. HAWKES.

Col. Benj. F. Hawkes, of 611 G street, S. W., Washington, D. C., is one of the three living comrades of General Grant in his cadet days at West Point. In a recent letter this venerable gentleman says of Peruna:

"I have tried Peruna after having tried in vain other remedies for catarrh, and I can say without reservation that I never felt a symptom of relief until I had given Peruna the simple trial that its advocates advise. I do not believe it has a superior either as a remedy for catarrh or as a tonic for the depressing and exhausted condition which is one of the effects of the disease."---Benj. F. Hawkes.

The Greatest Family Medicine Ever Discovered.

Hon. Wm. G. Hunter, ex-member North Carolina Legislature, writes from the Census Office Building, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"The greatest family medicine ever discovered, in my opinion, which comes from experience as well as observation, is Peruna. The most common affliction to humankind is a bad cold. Peruna drives it out of doors, wards off catarrh, invigorates and gives fresh strength to mind and body. I give Peruna my unqualified endorsement."—Wm. G. Hunter.

Chronic Catarrh of the Stomach Cured By Pe-ru-na.

Jas. T. Jakeman, President Elder Morman Church, Salt Lake City, Utah, writes:

"I should be and am a very grateful man for having been recommended the use of Peruna for catarrh. I had a chronic case of catarrh of the stomach and my system was so filled with different remedies that I had taken, that I sickened at the sight of a medicine bottle. Peruna was a last resort and it did not fail me, but cured me in about three months and I feel that it is a wonderful remedy and gladly give my experience from its use."—Jas. T. Jakeman.

Pe-ru-na Proved a Life Saver.

Mr. Louis Byrens, auctioneer, commission merchant and business broker, 436½ Richmond street, London, Ont., writes:

"I had been a sufferer with what physicians diagnosed as chronic catarrh. I thereby lost the necessary speaking faculties, which almost caused me to discontinue the business of auctioneer.

"After spending several hundred dollars for various medicines and doctor bills without avail, your wonderful remedy, Peruna, was recommended to me.

"After using several bottles of this life saver, I found relief, and I am again capable of conducting my auction sales. I wish to convince others, likewise afflicted, of the merits of your great remedy."—Louis Byrens.

Thousands of Testimonials.

We have on file thousands of testimonials like the ones given here. We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements of Peruna which we are constantly receiving.

Pe-ru-na is a Catarrhal Tonic Especially Adapted to the Declining Powers of Old Age.

In old age the mucous membranes become thickened and partly lose their function.

This leads to partial loss of hearing, smell and taste, as well as digestive disturbances.

Peruna corrects all this by its specific operation on all the mucous membranes of the body.

One bottle will convince anyone. Once used and Peruna becomes a life-long stand-by with old and young.

Mr. Charles F. Benctsson, Truesdail, Mo., writes: "I have followed your instructions for the past month and am now as well as I can be at the age of eighty-four years. I thank you for your valuable instructions and advice. I first used Peruna fourteen years ago when my health was so bad that I had no hope of staying many days, and after using it I began to pick up. It has helped me ever since. I feel well, but will always have Peruna as my companion."—Charles F. Benctsson.

As Well As Can Be At the Age of Eighty-four Years

Suffered a Number of Years From Systemic Catarrh.

Used Peruna as Last Resort, Now in Good Health.

Mrs. E. Schoncher, 220½ S. Olive St. Los Angeles, Cal., president Girl's Friendly Society, also secretary South Los Angeles Travelers Club, writes:

"I was for a number of years a sufferer from systemic catarrh. I was very nervous and run down, my appetite had failed me and my sleep was not restful. I had lost much in weight and looked like a very sick person. My physician advised a change of climate and the medicine I took only gave me temporary relief.

"I tried a bottle of Peruna as a last resort and was greatly pleased to find that I felt much improved in a general way and then I bought several bottles more.

"I am now in good health and have a good appetite and sleep well. I cannot say too much for Peruna and for what it has done for me."—E. Schoncher.

Pe-ru-na Contains no Narcotics.

One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. Peruna is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peruna does not produce temporary results. It is permanent in its effect.

An Evil Star

"Every profession has its own peculiar superstitions," said Detective Armstrong one night in the Hall of Justice, where there was nothing doing and the cigar smoke was thick, "and the profession of the thieftaker presents no exception to the rule. For instance, have you ever heard of the dislike, the morbid fear father, which policemen manifest when called upon to wear the star of some member of the force who has come to disaster—who, say, has been "broke' or who has been killed or badly hurt in a fight or accident? Well, it is a fact. The men simply flinch from wearing such a star. I remember some time ago there was a star which had a really remarkably large number of such stories of misfortune told of its former wearers, and one after another of the men who had to wear it came to some bad end. I forget the number just now, but there are many members of the force who can tel you of the evils which came upon men who had to pin that particular star to their breasts while on duty. One man, I recall, was kicked so severely in a tussle with roughs that he died. Another got into trouble with his superior officers and was dismissed from the force. And so it went. Finally some bright-witted chap to whom it fell to wear that ill-omened star thought of a way to break he hoodoo spell. He had another star exactly like it, bearing the same number, made at his own expense, and wore that nstead of the old one, which he destroyed. And, as a matter of fact and record to may be said that no bad luck came to him thereafter."—San Francisco Chronicle.

Township High School Principals.

The school directors of Haines township, at a recent meeting, elected Henry Krape, a graduate of Myerstown College, principal of the Haines Township High School, at Aaronsburg; salary, $60. Mr. Krape taught one of the public schools in that township last winter.

L. E. Poffenberger was elected principal of the Pine Grove Mills public schools at a meeting held by the board Saturday evening. Mr. Poffenberger is a graduate of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, and stood at the head of his class in mathematics and languages. While a student at college, Mr Poffenberger managed to support himself by working during vacation and while the college was in session.

N B. Spangler of Bellefonte, Atty at law, had business one or two days last week.

Last Saturday evening the great clearance sale at the store of D. J. Nelman closed. Such crowds of people attending this clearance sale of 10 days was never seen in this town. Thousands of dollars of goods were sold and at exceedingly low prices. Mr. Nieman is still in business and will continue at the same old stand. Some person or persons, who are known, circulated the report that Mr. Neiman had received a wad of goods from Lock Haven for this sale and that this wad was delivered at night when everyone was asleep. Mr. Neiman says that he never received any goods after night from Lock Haven or any where else. He says that if anyone can prove by substantial evidence of such delivery of goods he will pay into the borough treasury $500 for the benefit of the poor of this borough.

W. D. Blair, M. E. Diffenderfer of Mifflinburg; F. Rohland of Jersey Shore; M. C. Levi of Bellefonte; T. A. Snodgrass of Pittsburg; T. E. Hopkins of Detroit; Frank E. Waters of Danville; George Deitrich of Philadelphia; B. F. Dixon and brother of Williamsport; C. Carl Taylor and Miss Grace Fox of Bellefonte registered at the National a few days ago.

The town was crowded with people on last Saturday evening.

The Citizens band of Aaronsburg gave an open air concert here last Saturday evening and was much appreciated by the throng. This band is under the leadership of Al S Stover and is winning its way to be one of the best bands in the county.

C. H. Klose, cigar agent was in town on Monday.

If any one will take the time and trouble and visit our town he can see an arched bridge that looks somewhat like a humpbacked camel. It is a dandy and will be an eyesore as long as it remains in this condition.

F. O. Hosterman and W. F. Smith attended a horse sale on Monday at Bellefonte.

Samuel Barnitz of Mifflinburg interviewed our merchants on Monday.

There is considerable drunkenness in this town and among those that ought not to be. Landlords and others should be a little cautious in this matter or trouble will surely follow.

GRAND ENCAMPMENT AND EXHIBITION.

Grange Park Centre Hall, Will Open Saturday, September 16, for One Week.

The Thirty-second annual Encampment and Exhibition of the Patrons of Husbandry of Central Pennsylvania, will open on Grange Park, Centre Hall, Saturday, September 16, and continues for one week.

Grange Park covers an area of twenty-eight acres, is located along the Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad, and is well adapted to the purpose for which it is used.

True to its name this outing embraces an encampment and exhibition. Over one hundred tents are pitched on the grounds, floored, furnished with tables, and offered at a rental of $3.00 for the week. If desired by camping parties, these tents will be arranged to suit the fancies of the prospective tenants. The tents used are known as hospital tents, 14x16 feet, and are securely fastened to stakes.

The exhibit department is growing annually. The indications are that the exhibit of the products of the farm will be shown on an elaborate scale, and by a class of people who grow them not only for exhibition purposes, but for a living Exhibits shows from such a source are of actual benefit to the thousands of spectators who are similarly engaged.

The manufacturers of agricultural implements, farm machinery, house-hold utilities, novelties, etc., will find this gathering admirably suited for a profitable exhibit. This is so because the manufacturer comes in touch with the user of his wares. Exhibits unsold may be returned free, by securing a certificate of exhibit from the association.

Farmers and stock growers who make that branch of husbandry a business, who take advantage of this exhibition, (and there are not a few of them) will find that their efforts to show their stock well repair. There is amply stabling, good water, feed, straw, etc., on the grounds, purchasable at market price.

Pennsylvania State College makes a fine display each year, occupying an entire building. Grains, vegetables, fruits are exhibited, giving the yields for a series of years on the experimental farm. Besides this, the College displays work of the institution, gives out valuable literature for farmers and students.

The exercises in the auditorium during the day are of a character to interest the general public—farmers, mechanics, laborers, and professional men as well as the ladies.

The entertainments given in the evenings in the auditorium will be of great interest and amusement. On the grounds there will be the usual entertaining features.

Railroad excursion rates over all roads in Pennsylvania, from September 15th to the 23rd, good any day going and good to return until September 25th.

Sabbath School Conventions.

A strong effort is made to obtain full and accurate statistics of all Bible schools in Centre county and more effectively organize the county for progressive Sabbath school work. To this end Rev. Jacob Diehl is working under the joint direction of the State and Centre county Associations. Already four district conventions are arranged for the month of August. All who are in any way interested in Sunday school work please take note and arrange to attend your district convention.

The first of these conventions is to be held at Moshannon in the M. E. church on August 15th and will be under the direction of Mr. Alfred Thompson of Snow Shoe. This district is composed of the Sunday schools of Burnside and Snow Shoe townships.

The Patton and Half Moon townships are to hold a convention at Stormstown on the evening of August 22nd, under the leadership of Rev. R. S. Taylor, Dist. superintendent.

The Sabbath schools of Taylor, Worth and Huston townships will hold their annual convention in the M. E. church at Port Matilda on the evening of Aug. 23rd and during the entire day of the 24th. This convention is under the direction of Rev. J. B. Durkee.

The Milesburg, Boggs and Union township Association will hold their annua convention at Runville on Tuesday, Aug. 29th. There will be three sessions. The Rev. A. S. Carver is the District Superintendent and has planned a full and interesting program.

It is hardly necessary to add that every officer, teacher, worker or scholar in these districts will find it profitable and stimulating to attend their respective conventions. It is expected to have conventions in every district in the county. Other conventions will be announced later

Child Killer Causes Too Much Attention.

Sheriff Riddell of Lycoming county has arrived at the conclusion that the attaches of the jail have other things of importance to attend to than complying with the requests of James Salerno and his relatives, says the Gazette and Bulletin. The sheriff has especially tired of the numerous visits of the children and a cousin of the accused murderer, and has so informed the prisoner. The announcement did not have a very soothing effect on the foreigner and he asserted that he would become very lonely.

Salerno was given to understand that the number of employes at the jail was only large enough to permit of relatives calling on him once a week instead of several times a day, as has been the case since the arrest of the Italian. The attitude of the sheriff, together with the information made to him by his son that not enough money had been secured to retain certain attorneys for his defense, has caused a partial breakdown of the prisoner.

At noon on Thursday Salerno gave way to his grief and indulged in a prolonged crying spell. His wailing could be distinctly heard in every part of the big stone building on Third street. The turnkeys endeavored to pacify the Italian but failed. They summoned Deputy Sheriffs Seitzer and Milnor, and, after considerable trouble and patience, Salerno was induced to cease his loud expression of grief. The appetite of the prisoner continues good.

Successful Colored Girls.

Miss Portia M. Washington, daughter of Booker T. Washington, was one of the 25 young women to be graduated from Bradford Academy at Haverhill, Mass., this year. At Cornell the highest honors in the senior class have gone to Miss Jessie R. Fauset, a colored girl, and the only woman student of her race in the college of arts. What makes Miss Fauset's success the more remarkable is that in her course she had to complete with about 100 white students. Miss Washington has been one of the most popular girls at Bradford during the four years she has been there and she expects to go abroad soon to study music in Berlin.

Clean Up Spring Creek.

While the Street committee is so assiduously working on High street the Water committee might put in a day most profitably in having a force of men clean out Spring creek from the Bush house down to the Central Railroad of Penna. depot. Never in the memory of the writer was it in a more filthy and worse looking condition than now. Of course the low water has something to do with the unsightly state but a few men in a day or two could clean it out so that it would look at least passably respectable. For several hundred feet the bed of the stream is now a litter of everything in the wood line from a shingle to a saw log; from a broken beer bottle to an old tin boiler; from rotten oranges to decayed watermelons, while several dead rodents were to be seen launched against a piece of timber. The condition of the stream is not only an eye-sore of the worst kind but is such as to be a menace to the sanitary condition of the town and for this reason, if no other, should receive prompt attention.

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE!

Fire Fighters Burned by Boiling Soap.

TWENTY WERE INJURED

Of This Number Five Are Badly Parboiled and are Now Patients at Hospital.

TANKS CONTAINING SOAP EXPLODED

New York, August 12.—Twenty firemen were carried, burned and unconscious, from boiling soap, five of them very badly parboiled from a fire in W. H. Daggitt's Sons' soap factory in West Twelfth street Friday. Tanks containing 70,000 gallons of soap fat exploded after a fire in the the three story building had been brought under control. For five hours thereafter firemen fought this new danger, crawling on their stomachs on the sidewalks outside the building, unable to stand in a poisonous cloud of smoke which exhaled from the fiery soap greases and continually exposed to little rivers of the scorching fluid which flowed out of the building. Water seemed for the first three hours to have no other affect on the burning soap fats than to cause them to flow more freely, with greater peril to the fire fighters.

After the vats had taken fire Acting Chief Binns was forced to divide his men into two parties, one to enter the black smoke cloud with the hose and the other to stand waiting out in the air to rush in and rescue fainting comrades, whose cries for help came from the fire every few minutes. The black smoke was even more deadly than the hot grease and sometimes even the men lying flat on their backs were forced to inhale it by the constant back draughts.

In no case did the injuries of the firemen come from a single experience in the smoke and grease, but from repeated dashes into the fire zone after having been dragged out helpless by comrades.

A physician was among the rescue brigade and by first aid treatment succeeded in reviving some of the firemen. Several firemen who were taken out unconscious and restored to their senses refused to obey orders to go to the hospital, but ran back to their posts of duty. For an hour Frederick Barry fought the fire from the cellar with scalding grease trickling down over him. As he felt his strength giving out for the last time he screamed for help and Chief Howe, in another part of the building, heard him. Barry was found lying unconscious drowning in the hot water, and was carried to the hospital.

Fireman Andrew O'Neil sustained the most serious injuries. When the explosion of the first vat, containing 10,000 gallons of soap liquor occurred. several members of company 18 were so near that the explosion knocked them down. They ran out of the building not knowing that O'Neil was left behind. He was quickly missed and searchers found him lying on a stairway in a small cascade of soap grease.

Before the fire was under control six of the firemen had been carried to the hospital and many others who did not go were barely able to walk.

Labor Day in Philipsburg.

The Clearfield County Re-Union Association of the Knights of the Golden Eagle will observe Labor Day in Philipsburg. It is expected that upwards of 2000 knights will be present and participate in the parade and other festivities of the day. Addresses by several prominent knights will be special features.

The Pennsylvania Experiment Station.

The Station has recently examined a sample of bran submitted by a Westmoreland county farmer with a statement that cattle refuse it and when they do eat it are purged, and that hogs eating it sicken and die, one farmer in that county having lost six hogs in this wey. Upon examination the bran was found to contain rice hulls.

These hulls, produced abundantly as a waste from the rice milling industry, differ materially from the hulls of barley, wheat rye and oats because of the fact that they contain sharp particles of silica. These are extremely irritating to the mucous lining of the digestive tract of the animals eating the hulls. The irritation produced is so intense that many animals are sickened and often killed because of this action of the rice hulls. Hogs and heifers have been especially injured where attempts have been made in the Southern States to feed this product and the experience in that locality has shown these hulls to be an absolutely dangerous ingredient of stock food.

Rice hulls have been found in western samples of wheat bran sold in New England and in the Middle West, but this is the first case, to the writer's knowledge, in which the adulterant has appeared in Pennsylvania. The sample in question showed large particles of yellow hulls that were readily dectable upon a careful examination of bran by the unsided eye. With a low power lens the outside surface of the hull is seen to be marked by fine parallel lines covering the whole surface quite uniformly and extending parallel to the long axis of the hull. This appearance is quite different from that shown by barley and oat hulls. Owing to the extremely dangerous character of this adulterant, buyers should be especially on their guard against it.

Prohibition State Convention.

George Hoffman, Chairman of the Prohibition State Committee, has issued a call for the State Convention of the party to be held in Williamsport on August 23rd. Nominations will be made for State Treasurer and Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts.

During the past few months there has been much talk of placing W. H. Berry, the Prohibition-Democratic Mayor of Chester in nomination for state treasurer. Mr. Berry was the Prohibition nominee for the same office in 1895 and polled a good vote. Last February he was chosen mayor of Chester on the combined Prohibition, Citizens' and Democratic tickets. As Mr. Berry's Prohibition views are well known, a number of well known party leaders favor his nomination on the Prohibition ticket.

Another item of interest at the convention will be the election of a new state chairman, the present incumbent, Mr. George Hoffman, not being a candidate for re-election. Among the prominent names mentioned for the vacancy are H. B. Milward, of McKean county; David B. McCalmont of Venango county; John E. Gill of Venango county; Rev. A. O. Stone, Mercer county; H. W. Coad, of Allegheny county, and R. C. Loupe of Erie county.

There will be a meeting of the Philadelphia delegates at 3332 Chestnut street, next Monday evening, in connection with the regular meeting of the Prohibition City Committee.

The following provisional program has been issued:

Tuesday, August 22nd :— 2:30 p. m., Conference of County Workers and Officers in charge of H. B. Milward, McKean county. 3:30 p. m., Prohibition Alliance Conference, in charge of Mrs. E. Norine Law, State Superintendent of Alliances. National Chairman Charles R. Jones will take part, 7 p. m.; open air meetings to be addressed by Michael J. Fanning and Rev. George H. Vibbert. 8 p. m., mass meeting in Convention Hall to be addressed by Clinton N. Howard of Rochester New York.

FOR THE ECLIPSE.

A Total Eclipse of the Sun and Partial Eclipse of the Moon.

There will be a total eclipse of the sun and a partial eclipse of the moon this month and both will be visible in Bellefonte. The eclipse of the moon comes on August 14, and is visible in most parts of America.

The moon will enter the shadow here about 9:30 o'clock in the evening, and if the skies are clear the eclipse will be visible until 11:35, or for over two hours.

The event of the year among astronomers will be the total eclipse of the sun on August 30. This eclipse is visible in the eastern part of the United States, the whole of Europe, Western Asia, and the northern and central portions of Africa.

The eclipse begins on the earth generally at 29 minutes after five in the morning at a point in the eastern end of Middlesex county, Virginia, near the mouth of the Rappahannock river. It will be visible here at practically the same time.

The path of the total eclipse begins at sunrise a few miles east of Winnipeg, Man., and moving eastward and a little to the north it crosses James bay and Labrador, then bearing a little to the south it crosses the Atlantic ocean and enters Spain. Moving thence in a southerly direction, it passes a few miles north of Madrid, leaving Spain near Castellon de la Piana. It then crosses the Mediterranean and the northeast corner of Africa, the Red Sea, Southern Arabia and leaves the earth at sunset on the southern coast of Arabia.

The best localities for observing the total eclipse are the east coast of Labrador, the northwest coast of Spain, Castellon de la Piana, Spain and Algeria.

Bellefonte will be partly darkened for nearly two hours. Starting about 5:30 o'clock in the morning the eclipse will end here about 7:20 The annular eclipse of the sun occurred on March 5, but was not visible here.

Blind Beggar a Rich Man.

Having a bank account estimated at $60,000, and owning a magnificent residence at Pittston, a blind beggar, whose name the police refuse as yet to disclose, was arrested by the Altoona police Wednesday on the charge of "professional pan-handling." He arrived in Altoona in the morning and importuned the police officials for permission to beg on the city streets, alleging that he had a family to support He wore a Grand Army button and claimed that he had served four years in the civil war. He presented to Chief of Police Tillard a begging card, related a tale of woe and stated that his eyes were blown out by a premature explosion in a mine.

The city has stringent laws against begging on the streets; but the old man told such a pitiable story that Chief Tillard reluctantly gave him permission to solicit alms from the charitably disposed. The chief started him off with a dollar contribution.

After he had left police headquarters Chief of Police John Mullen and Special Officer M. R. Brandier, of Johnstown, who were in Altoona on special work, ran across the old man on the street corner and recognized him. He had been in Johnstown, they said, and his record had been looked up.

Chief Tillard was informed that the "poor blind beggar" was none other than a wealthy resident of Pittston. So the chief at once decided that so wealthy an old soldier has no right to beg any more money from Altoona people, and gave orders that he should be immediately arrested.

Carnegie Gives $30,000.

York, Pa., (Special).—Rev. F. G. Gotwalt, of this city, general secretary of the Board of Education of the Lutheran church, has been notified that Andrew Carnegie, now at his home at Skibo Castle, Scotland, will contribute $30,000 to the Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, for the erection of a new science hall. Mr. Carnegie makes a proviso that the trustees of the college be required to raise a like amount.

Killed in the Woods.

Harvey Brown, a well known citizen of Clearfield, who has been working in the woods near Potts Run, was struck by a falling tree on Monday afternoon and fatally injured. The accident occurred at about 4 o'clock, and the following day, at about the same hour that the accident occurred, he died.

The deceased was a married man and leaves a wife and eight children.

$500 Reward For Women Who Cannot Be Cured.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I used four bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Elmer D. Shearer, of Mounthope, Lancaster Co., Pa., "and can say that I am cured of that dreaded disease, uterine trouble. Am in better health than ever before. Everyone who knows me is surprised to see me look so well. In June I was so poor in health that at times I could not walk. To-day I am cured. I tell everybody that Dr. Pierce's medicines cured me."

A Monster Rattler Slain at Monument.

A correspondent at Monument writes the Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin that Frank Chapman, foreman of the Paper Wood company at that place, had quite a thrilling experience with a large black rattlesnake.

While driving up the mountain he heard a snake rattle just below the road, and, after passing it, he stopped his team, took a stake out of his wagon, and looked the fellow up, and when he did find it he had a notion not to tackle it.

He saw it was a big fellow, and when he got through with the reptile he found he had a good tussle and Mr. Snake had had come out second best. The snake measured five feet, ten inches, and sported 31 rattles. It was six inches in diameter.

The correspondent adds. "Now, if you doubt this story, you can find proof of it by asking Station Agent Davis here, who has the string of rattles, and will be pleased to show them to you."

Several large rattlesnakes have been killed at Monument this season, but this is the largest yet slain.

Addicks Takes Job as Editorial Writer.

J. Edward Addicks is about to take up real newspaper work, He owns the Dover Sentinel, and in the past contented himself with directing its policy.

Evidently this arrangement was not satisfactory, for it has been announced that with a change in the management the Gasman would become chief editorial writer.

Addicks has served notice on his foes that he is not at the foot of the political class, and it is pointed out that his success in putting the negro Postles in virtual control of Wilmington was a master stroke of ability.

With Addicks penning fiery editorials, the Delaware political fight is bound to be exciting.

Edward B. Londerbaugh will aid Addicks in running the sentinel.

To the Pacific Coast—to California, Oregon, Washington—round-trip, long transit and return limits, liberal stop-over privileges.

The rate is practically on the basis of one fare for the round trip. Of course, if you wish to visit both California and Oregon or Washington, the cost is slightly more.

These reduced rates are in effect on certain dates in months of May to October, inclusive. They apply from all Eastern points via Chicago, St. Louis or Memphis gateways. The Rock Island System will take you up in either Chicago or St. Louis, or at hundreds of other Middle West points and carry you to the Coast in through Standard or Tourist Sleepers with unexcelled Dining Car service. The Rock Island also affords a choice of routes: on the "Scenic" route you can stop off in Colorado—see Salt Lake City—visit Yellowstone National Park; on the "Southern" route you can go via El Paso, thru New Mexico, then "up coast" to San Francisco and on to Portland or Seattle if desired.

In short, these Pacific Coast excursions offer an unusually good chance to see our western country in a comprehensive manner.

If you desire to go only as far as Colorado, there are excursion rates in effect to that section and return, all summer long, specially reduced June 30 to July 4, August 12 and 13, and August 30 to September 4. Extension trips to Ogden or Salt Lake and return at low cost also.

From September 15 to October 31, 1905, one-way tourist or "colonist" tickets will be on sale to California and the Pacific Northwest—about half regular fare.

If interested, send name and address on this coupon, designating which booklet wanted and to what point you plan to go. Name probable date of start also, so we can advise definitely with respect to rates, etc.

TRUE TO THE COLORS

Republicans of Pennsylvania Stand By the Party Standard-Bearers.

DISORGANIZERS ARE REBUKED

Party Men in York and Somerset Among the First to Meet Insurgent Attacks.

[Special Correspondence.]
Harrisburg, Aug. 8.

It is apparent from reports received from all over the state that the Republicans of the interior of the commonwealth do not propose to be drawn into the political troubles and the factional contests in Philadelphia.

The action of the Republican county convention in York last week emphasized this determination on the part of the members of the Republican party living outside of the borders of Philadelphia. The general feeling is that the citizens of Philadelphia are thoroughly competent to work out their own reforms, and to find a remedy for any abuses that may have crept into the management of their municipal affairs.

It was to be expected that the men who have for years been seeking to disrupt the Republican organization would take advantage of the situation in Philadelphia and attempt to stir up trouble and strife within the Republican organization in other counties of the state. It is known that emissaries from the old insurgent contingent in the Quaker City have been sent out through the state to incite and encourage factional feeling in the several counties in the expectation of dividing the Republicans and contributing to the success of the Democratic schemes to win votes for their candidate for state treasurer, Berry, and to pave the way for a fusion compaign for governor next year.

York Republicans Act.

York Republicans in their county convention were the first to meet the party wrecking compaigners and they made short work of the job.

H. C. Niles, a member of the bar, who has business and personal associations with one of the active insurgents in Philadelphia, sought to get the Republican convention of York county to adopt resolutions which were calculated to promote the ends of the party wreckers. It was a palpable attempt to inject the Philadelphia scandals into the politics of York county, but it failed signally. Chairman Robert C. Bair, of the Republican committee of York county, in opposing Mr. Niles' resolutions on the floor of the convention, said: "For twenty years the Republicans of York county have been fighting graft in the Democratic ranks, while Mr. Niles was sitting comfortably at home. We have labored hard to bring York county out of the disgrace into which the Democrats brought it and now that we are on the way to success Mr. Niles comes forward with his resolution and his attempts to divert the attentions of the people from the work cut out for them to do at home.

"The Republicans of York oppose graft wherever it is found and applaud the noble men who have the manhood to fight to wipe it out. In fact we are doing that very thing ourselves and we do not favor bringing the fights of other communities into our labors while we have so much to do."

Mr. Bair's speech was received with great applause and when Mr. Niles' resolution came before the convention it received but three votes, one of which was cast by Mr. Niles himself.

After the convention it was pointed out that Mr. Niles is a disappointed candidate for the Republican nomination for the superior court. He was twice honored by his party in York county with the delegates for this office, but the Republicans of Pennsylvania in their state convention concluded in each instance that there was a more deserving candidate who was nominated. One of these was Judge Henderson, of Crawford county, and the other Judge Morrison, of McKean county. Mr. Niles has since been out of sorts and disposed to criticise the leaders of the organization of the state.

Somerset Stalwarts Serene.

Somerset is another county in which the Republicans who believe in their party and its glorious record have set their faces hard against the assistant Democrats who are active in their efforts to sow discord in the Republican organization of the state.

Editor S. A. Kendall, of the Meyersdale Republican, has been paying his respects to those who have been trying to make trouble in that county. He wants them to stand up and be counted. He charges that the head and front of the movement in that county was a Bryan Democrat, and that "he has been on every side of the question since then, and the men who are backing him up in the present fiasco have a record as shady as his own."

Fighting Talk This.

Continuing to comment upon their agitation for a fusion ticket and their predictions of Republican defeat, Editor Kendall says: "It is all bosh and rot, for Somerset county Republicans long since quit following the leadership of these men, and they take no more stock in a fusion ticket this year than they did last, when they polled 700 votes in the county.

"We have tired of these cowardly onslaughts, and we only trust that they will keep their word and place a 'bolters' ticket in the field this fall, that they may receive the licking for which their hides seem to be fairly itching. Somerset county is a Republican county, and it has never bent its knee to any class of disgruntled office-seekers, who never were Republicans except for revenue, and if they don't believe this assertion, let them come out of their hiding and array themselves up in proper line against the organization and make a fight for their dirty political methods, or keep still and quit their malicious talk about their betters.

"Talk is cheap, and all talk of a fusion ticket in this county this fall comes from the cheapest lot of broken-down politicians that any county was ever burdened with."

FARMERS ARE IN LINE

Why Agriculturalists of Pennsylvania Are With Republican Party.

NEW PURE BUTTER CRUSADE

Great Work of the New Department of Health Reflects Credit Upon the Administration.

[Special Correspondence.]
Philadelphia, Aug. 8.

The movement started at a meeting at West Chester, under the auspices of Pomono Grange, No. 8, of Chester county, to bring about more satisfactory legislation by congress for the protection of the pure butter and dairy interests of this and other states, is one of far reaching significance.

This action was taken after the revelations made by Pure Food Commissioner Dr. B. H. Warren in his prosecutions growing out of the charge that oleomargarine colored as butter was being sold as butter to the United States navy.

After consultation between the national and state authorities it was decided that action should be taken under the Pennsylvania pure food laws because they were found to be far more stringent, comprehensive and sweeping than the federal statutes.

The farmers and dairymen of Pennsylvania will lead in the movement to have congress amend and strengthen the present statutes regarding the sale of oleomargarine. They will demand that the clause in the sixth section of the present statute which reads that every person who "knowingly" sells or offers for sale or delivers or offers to deliver any oleomargarine, etc., shall be amended so that the word "knowingly" shall be stricken out. Then it will not be necessary to prove before a conviction can be had that the guilty party "knowingly" violated the intent and spirit of the law.

Farmers' Interests Protected.

It is a matter of comment that the Republican party of Pennsylvania has always been jealous and deeply considerate of the interests of the farmers and dairymen of this state. Laws calculated to benefit the agricultural interests have beeen placed upon the statute books and they have stood the test in the courts. Not only is this legislation carefully and properly drafted, but the laws are enforced.

The work of Secretary of Agriculture N. B. Critchfield and of Pure Food Commissioner Dr. B. H. Warren in protecting the farming interest of this commonwealth is one of the most gratifying features of Governor Pennypacker's administration.

No other department has reflected more credit upon the state administration and upon the Republican party.

One of the pleasant experiences of the early campaign work by Chairman Wesley R. Andrews, of the Republican state committee, is the correspondence in reference to the feeling among the farmers and dairymen of the state. Every agricultural district is reported to be strongly in line with the Republican party. The dairymen are especially appreciative of the splendid work being done to protect the butter interests of the state and they confidently count upon the hearty co-operation of Senators Penrose and Knox and every one of the Republican members of the lower house of congress from this state in the movement to have the federal statutes regarding the sale of oleomargarine made as stringent and satisfactory as is the law passed by the Republican legislators of Pennsylvania and which is enforced with unflinching rigor in every section and county of the commonwealth.

Dr. Dixon's Great Work.

The news columns of the papers of the entire country have within the last week told of the diligent and thorough work being done by another department of the state administration. The protection of the health and the very lives of the citizens of the state is the aim of the recently created state health commission, under the direction of that eminent scientist, physician and sanitary specialist, Dr. Samuel G. Dixon. No appointment that Governor Pennypacker has ever made met with more general and more sincere commendation than his selection of Dr. Dixon as state health commissioner. His prompt organization of his office and immediate prosecution of the mission which he and his assistants have been delegated to fill, is characteristic of the man.

Under the administration of Dr. Dixon no arbitrary acts will be committed, but the law will be enforced for the good of all the citizens of the several communities and with due consideration for the various interests affected. While people are dying like sheep in Louisiana from yellow fever, the health authorities of Pennsylvania are working night and day to safeguard the people from epidemics of all kinds, and the precautions already taken have resulted in a marked decrease in the death rate in many sections of the state.

Dr. Dixon's force is co-operating with local authorities wherever possible. The sources of pollution of rivers are being investigated, and remedies are being applied without delay and plans are being mapped out for permanent reforms in every direction.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. DON'T BE WOOZY!

NERO

was a most crafty Roman, but he made one mistake.

He committed suicide at the wrong end of his life,

He should have shuffled off at the beginning.

A great many business men today are committing business suicide at the wrong end of their lives.

They mean well at the start, but drift away from their good resolutions

One means of a long and prosperous business life is to have good printing and stationery.

A business is judged by its reading matter.

THE REPUBLICAN

Job Printing Department is prepared to furnish the best.

Cost is a secondary consideration when you consider the quality—sufficient it is to say our prices are so reasonable that it would be a waste of shoe leather to look further.

It has a distinctiveness all its own—a something that distinguishes it from the common trash of the ordinary shop.

Again we say:

"Don't be Woozy."

Think it over and for your next order, remember the

BRIEF MENTION

Short Items of Local Interest Gathered By The Way Side

—Doll's bakery have flung to the breeze a handsome new sign. It is very neat and attractive and should be a trade winner.

—There are some reasons to believe that not all the polish in the world can make a gentleman out of one who was born a lout.

—LOST—A light red cow. Mixed with Jersey. Horns cut off close to head. Slit in right ear. John Sheffler, Snow Shoe, Pa. d-2-w.

—Vacations are not absolutely essential but they are very agreeable when taken under favorable circumstances and in congenial company.

—The Y. P. C. U. of the United Brethren church will hold a festival on the green in front of Gamble, Gheen & Co's. mill next Saturday evening.

—In order to stimulate trade at the postoffice Postmaster W. W. Montgomery will until further notice sell thirteen two cent stamps for one cent and a quarter.

—Harvey Gengher, who bought out Edward Baney's barber shop in the Brown building an Bishop street has opened up for business. He will be pleased to see his friends and will guarantee a first class shave or hair cut if you are in need of such service.

—Agnes, the little eight month old daughter of Joseph and Mary McCulley died at their home on Logan street Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Death was due to brain fever. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in the Catholic cemetery.

—Cashier John E. Fryberger, of the First National Bank, has perhaps the greatest reason for being happy to-day of any man in town, unless there are others unknown to us who are like wise blessed. It's another heir, this time a girl, and Grandpap McGaffey is just about as happy as the First National's genial cashier.—Thursday's Philipsburg Journal.

—During a storm Saturday afternoon lightning struck the livery stable of Robert Ramsey of Jersey Shore and soon the building was a mass of flames and was practically destroyed, as well as a lot of hay and grain. The carriages and horses were removed. The hotel Leland and nearby residences were in danger, but were saved by the firemen.

—As men grow older and gather a family about them, as they feel the sorrow and misery in the world, it's harshness and its coldness, they awake to realization that without domestic happiness; there is no real happiness that the joy of life is in the home. One's home is always better if one has the confidence and esteem of the men and women who know him.

—While playing with matches, last week Fred Love, the four-year-old son of overseer of the poor John Love, accidentally set fire to his clothing. The lad was in the kitchen at the time and when he discovered his clothing burning he ran out in the yard, endeavoring to smother the flames with his hands. His cries brought the venerable William Rees to his aid who quickly extinguished the flames though not before the boy's hands and breast were badly burned. Fortunately he didn't inhale the flames so that his injuries, though serious, are not regarded fatal.

—A party of young ladies from Centre Hall, with visiting friends, picnicked on the top of Nittany Mountain Tuesday afternoon. The crowd was composed of the following: Misses Amy Duncan and Helen Cleaver, Gordon; Mildred and Mary Grimm, Bellefonte; Laura Runkle, Tacy Kreamer, Elsie and Verna Geiss, Helen Hosterman and Nellie Kerlin, Centre Hall. On the mountain they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Grimm, Eleanor Parker, Messrs. Clarence Garbrick and Bert Robb, all of Bellefonte Charles Duncan, Gordon; Prof. Will D. Blair, Mifflinburg. The day was a delightful one, and was much enjoyed by all of the party.

—A mouse effectually broke up a prayer meeting in the Presbyterian church at Oxford, Pa., recently. Just when the members were in a devout line of thought the little creature tried to ascend a brother's leg and perch on his knee. The brother handed the mouse a good worldly punch and the little bundle of gray fur landed in that zone occupied chiefly by the sisters. In record-breaking time every fair worshiper was without the walls, their skirts tightly gathered. In vain the brethren implored the fearful ones to return. The chain of meditation and prayer had been broken. The meeting abruptly ended, the sexton extinguished the lamps and the mouse held the fort.

—Mrs. J. L. Spangler entertained a party of friends at an afternoon tea from 3 to 7 o'clock Thursday.

—The Brockerhoff House is sporting a brand new set of harness for their bus team. It was made by James Schofield.

—The shirt factory closed down Thursday to allow the employees to attend the Methodist picnic at Hecla Park.

—Miss Anna McCoy entertained the three of her school friends who are her house guests at the Country club Friday evening.

—David J. Kelly and family with Miss Griest of Unionville, as their guest, spent last week camping out up at the Willows.

—Prof. C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, ex-county superintendent, has been elected principal of the Miles township High School.

—On Wednesday Mrs. Bruce Garman chaperoned a jolly party of five young maids on a fern hunting expedition down in Curtin's gap.

—Joseph Diehl, of Howard, has bought the entire peach crop of Col. W. Fred Reynolds, the latter to deliver the fruit on board the cars.

—The Ladies Aid Society of the U. B. Church will serve Ice Cream and Cake in the Aid Society room, next to the church Saturday evening Aug. 12, '05. All are invited.

—Miss Minnie Cole, of the Daily News force, was the fortunate winner of a very pretty set of nut pickers which were chanced off last Saturday at George Fisher's store in Boalsburg.

—A very life-like portrait of Mr. R. A. Beck, by Antrim and Landsy, now adorns the walls of his barber shop. It is one of the best pieces of work sent to this town by the Philadelphia artists.

—The fool who rocks the boat, the idiot who points the empty gun and kills his friends and the man who imagines the world could not get along without him are all in the same class.

—Owing to the water in Spring creek being too low to keep in constant operation the pump at the new Phoenix mill station the old water works pump has been in operation the past week or so.

—The Knisely brothers will shortly start the manufacture of cigars in the room over the one now occupied by them as a pool room and cigar store. John L. McGinley will be in charge of the factory

—During the past season Mrs. Ira Rishel and her children, of Potter township, picked 360 quarts of red raspberries from a plot of less than one-eighth of an acre of ground, which were sold at eight cents a quar.

—The new cream cheese we have now is just what you want. The quality is extra fine, and the price reasonable. 16 cents per pound for the finest. At Sechler & Co's Pure Food and Fine Groceries.

—Centre county streams are now almost as low as if there had been an extended drought. Though there has been a sufficient rainfall during the summer it was mostly by showers, consequently did not effect the streams.

—Dr. R. G. H. Hayes and John M. Shugert recently purchased the three vacant lots on Lamb street from the Laughlin sisters, of Pittsburg. They now have Thomas Shaughnessy at work on same cleaning up and leveling off the ground.

—John Rankin, of son Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rankin, was in Altoona last Sunday to visit his brother Walter returning, Monday, sick so that it was necessary to remove him to the Bellefonte hospital for a slight operation, which was performed the same day by Dr. Vischer. He is getting along very nicely now.

—The little congregation down at Pleasant View chapel, below Shoemakers, are preparing to hold a big "Rally" on Sunday afternoon, September 17, at 3 o'clock. The ministers of the different denominations in town will be invited to be present and make addresses and there will be other interesting exercises. When the chapel was built the money to pay for it was all raised except about $100 This has been hanging over their heads for the past two years and it is the desire of the trustees to clear this up at this rally. Besides this there will be a committee appointed to call on the liberal people of our town for contributions. We hope they will receive all the encouragement and aid they need for their cause is a worthy one.

—A good one is told by one of the Franklin preachers who recently tied in "the holy bonds of matrimony" a young couple. After the ceremony at the parsonage the young man presented the parson with a $2 bill, with the excuse that he was hard up but would give him $3 more in a few days. The preacher kindly told the man he really didn't need the money and he could have the $2 if he needed it badly. The man objected to taking the money back, as he said he wanted to do the thing up right. Several days after the marriage the parson met the young man on the street and asked him how he was getting along. "Say, parson," said the young man, "I'm mighty hard up. Can't you lend me that $2 I gave you the other day.

—George H. Knisely and family are out camping along Spring creek near the beautiful Eagle's Nest.

—Memorial services for the dead in the gunboat Bennigtnon disaster were held at San Diego, Cal.

—Allen W. Wood, the Pittsburg millionaire, died in New York from the effects of an operation.

—Work has been commenced on the new hospital at Spangler, the architect is Robert Cole of Bellefonte.

—We are glad to note that Robert Cole has recovered from his serious illness and is again noticeable on our streets.

—An elevator in the chamber of commerce building at Buffalo dropped six stories, seriously injuring six persons.

—We get busy next month. If your house needs painting better give up the order now and we'll save a date for you.
Eckenroths'.

—The plasterers have started to work on the new Y. M. C. A., building. The work is in charge of two such competent men as Orrin Miller and J. Mitchell Lieb.

—Chas. B. Samuels, the colored night watchman of the Bush house, has been awarded a diploma in electric lighting engineering by the International Correspondence Schools.

—Harvest Home services will be held in St. John's Reformed church, Bellefonte, next Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and in the Reformed church at Zion at 2:30 p. m. the same day.

—Workmen are now engaged in excavating at the Everett station on the line of the Huntingdon and Broad Top railroad and it is understood that the company is getting ready to construct a new passenger station at that point.

—Since the law compelling persons to secure marriage licenses before they can be lawfully wedded in Pennsylvania went into effect over 7,000 marriage licenses have been issued in Somerset county Last week Register Shafer started volume No. 1.

—Rev. David Neely, of Baltimore, Md., will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. He is an eloquent and forceful speaker and should be greeted by a large audience. Any further announcement in regard to the services during August will be made at this service.

—The fact that the directors of the Centre County Fair association have thus early begun preparations for their annual exposition on October 3, 4, 5, and 6th next is evidence that when the fall days come something bigger and better than ever will be presented to the public.

—Sarah, the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dorman of North Penn street, died on Tuesday evening after a brief illness of cholera infantum. The funeral will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the house. Interment in the Union cemetery.

—On account of Business Men's picnic August 22, trains over the Central railroad of Penna. will run as follows: Leave Bellefonte for Park at 6:30, 7:10, 8:15, 10:00, 11:00, a. m. 1, 2:30, 3:20, 5:00, 6.40, 8:30 p. m. Returning leave park for Bellefonte at 9:15, 10:25, 12:00, 1:35, 4:00, 4:45, 6:00, 7:30, 8:55 and 10:45 p. m.

—The Williams Re-union which will be held at Martha next Saturday promises to draw a big crowd if the weather permits. Passenger trains on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad will stop at John Q. Miles grove where the picnic is to be held. The principal orator of the day will be Ex-Judge John G Love. There will be other speakers also.

—Last Friday morning the little seven year old son of Al. Keen, of Coburn, met with a terrible accident. He was playing in the overhead of the barn when he suddenly missed his footing and fell to the barn floor. His leg was badly broken and crushed from the hip to the knee. Monday morning he was brought to the Bellefonte Sanitarium for treatment.

—Quite a jolly crowd of young people from Bellefonte enjoyed an outing Tuesday evening at Hecla Park. They took with them Mr. J. Bailey as violinist and Mrs. Bailey, as pianist. Dancing and other amusements were indulged in. In the party were the Misses Alice Ishler, Verna Smith. Roxy Obrien, M. Miller, Fannie Mulbarger, —— Jones, Daisy Barnes, Ann Nolan, Julia Lamb, M. Showers, J. Showers. Messrs Harry Smith, Chas. Keichline, Paul Fortney, Ford, Jones. Bocker, Hagen and Baney.

—The August "Arena" contains a number of unusually strong papers on civic, political and economic subjects which will challenge the attention of thoughtful Americans. Mr. Blankenburg considers the recent revolution on the part of the people of Pennsylvania against the ring that has so long robbed and ruled the state. The Hon. J. Henniker Heaton, M. P., of London, writes a graphic description of the parcels-post in Europe, in which he shows that Germany heads the nation in an efficient parcels-post, Great Britain coming second. The Hon. J. Warner Mills discusses "The Economic Struggle in Colorado. Eltweed Pomeroy makes a clear and admirable presentation of the merits of Direct Legislation. Linton Satterthwait contributes "A Sane View of the Railroad Question." Folger Baker contributes a thoughtful paper on "What of the Italian Immigrant?"

EARLY MORNING WEDDING.

John P. Kelly and Miss Elizabeth V. Kelly, Both of Snow Shoe, United for Life..

A quiet but very pretty wedding ceremony was celebrated Tuesday morning in St Mary's Catholic church at Snow Shoe which united for life two very popular young people of the Mountain City. The contracting parties were John P. Kelly, son of H. P. Kelly, and Miss Elizabeth V. Kelly, daughter of Thomas Kelly, Sr. The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock by Rev. Father Corcoran, rector of St. Mary's church. The groom's brother, Thomas Kelly Jr., was best man while the bride was attended by Miss Anna Redding as bridesmaid. After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of the bride where a delicious wedding breakfast awaited them, tendered to them by the bride's brother, John A. Kelly,

Those present were H. P. Kelly and wife, M. D. Kelly and wife, John A. Kelly and wife; Thomas Kelly Sr. and wife, Miss Annie Glenn, Miss Anna Redding, Thomas Kelly Jr. and Logan M. Kelly.

The bride is a bright and attractive young lady, while the groom is one of Snow Shoe's energetic young men. He with his brother are coal operators and doing a fine business.

The bride and groom thinking to elude their friends who wanted to give them a a good send off drove to Milesburg to board the train for their wedding tour. They were surprised, however, on reaching that point to find Logan M. Kelly, with about twenty-five pounds of rice waiting for them.

This paper joins with the many friends of the happy young couple in extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kelly with the hope that their voyage on the sea of matrimony may be a long and happy one.

MRS. WILLIAM PARKS.

Former Bellefonte Lady Dies at Beaver Falls.

Mrs. William Parks, formerly of Bellefonte, but late of Beaver Falls, died at her home in that place Saturday morning of blood poisoning. Mrs. Parks left here about a year ago in the best of health and with bright prospects before her. Soon after going to Beaver Falls her health failed her and it was necessary for her to undergo an operation. As a result of the operation blood poisoning set in and she finally passed away as above stated.

The deceased was the daughter of John and Caroline Delaney and was born at Curtin's Works about fifty years ago. She was married to William Parks and for many years was a resident of Bellefonte where she has always been held in high esteem. She was a member of St. John's Catholic church and a sincere christian lady.

She is survived by her husband and three children, Harry, John and Fred all of Beaver Falls. She also leaves two sisters Nannie and Mary Delaney of Milesburg.

The Smith Reunion.

Saturday, August 5th, the relatives and former neighbors of Joseph Smith gathered in "Pine Woods," east of Penn Hall for a day's picnic in his honor.

Mr. Smith was formerly known throughout Penns Valley as a wagon builder and undertaker. but for several years has been living with his sons in Illinois, is now making a visit to his old home and friends.

Many of Mr. Smith's relatives live in this vicinity, and were present at the picnic, although none of his immediate family are now residents here.

His children, Ezra, George, Margaret, (Mrs. John Hazel,) Eliza (Mrs. John Grenoble), and Domer, are all living in Illinois. The latter, Dr. Smith, has recently been a delegate to the American Medical Association at its meeting in Portland, Oregon.

Mr. Smith is accompanied on his visit by Mrs. Ella Smith, wife of Francis Smith, third, a nephew.

Mr. Smith and Mrs. Mary Smith, wife of Elias E. Smith, of Penn Hall, are today the only ones living of a family of seven children of Francis Smith Jr.

Francis Smith, Sr., the grandfather of Joseph Smith, was born in Ireland. His parents came to Dauphin county, Pa., in the middle part of the eighteenth century. Early in the last century, Francis Smith, Sr., the founder of the family, came to Centre county and lived in what is now Smithtown, west of Millheim.

He was the father of six children and his descendants to-day number ninety-two.

There were present at the picnic three little children, the sixth generation, descendants of Francis Smith, Sr.

It is worthy of notice that though all the Smiths of this family are proud of their "Pennsylvania-German" ancestry the founder of the family was a son of old Erin, the Emerald Isle.

HIGH NOON WEDDING.

Miss Virginia Gray Becomes the Bride of a Young Massachusetts Merchant.

At high-noon Wednesday the home of Mrs. I. V. Gray, on South Centre street, Philipsburg, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, the occasion being the marriage of her youngest daughter, Miss Virginia, to George Ottis Farnsworth, of Waltham, Mass. Rev. George D. Penepacker, D. D., of Trinity M. E. church, officiated, only the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present.

The bride is a cultured and most excellent young lady, a graduate of our high school, and who for several years has been teaching school in Massachusetts. The groom is a prominent young merchant in Waltham, and most worthy of the charming young bride he has succeeded in winning.

The happy couple left Wednesday evening for Niagara Falls and other places of interest, after which they will take up housekeeping at Waltham. We are sure they will have the very best wishes of a large circle of friends.—Philipsburg Journal.

Death of Thomas Pennington.

Thomas Pennington, one of the town's best known colored residents, died in the Bellefonte hospital Tuesday evening at twenty minutes of eleven. Both he and his aged wife were inmates of the hospital. The deceased was eighty years of age and was born in the South a slave, At the close of the war he came to Bellefonte and has resided here ever since. He could relate many interesting stories of life in the south during slavery day.

The funeral service will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of his son, Levi Pennington, on Penn street. Interment in the Union cemetery.

Child of Eight a Horse Dealer.

Clara G. Cole, eight years old is probably the youngest horse dealer in the world. She is a grand-daughter of J. B. Gentzel, of Bellefonte, and last Friday purchased a car load of draught horses at auction at the National Stock yards, at St. Louis and had them shipped to Bellefonte where they were sold at the Haag House Monday. The child is the youngest buyer who has done business at the yards, Her grandfather coached her during the brisk bidding.
